

AWS Milwaukee Section - privacy statement

AWS Milwaukee Section does not disclose personal information about our members, and event registrants, except where deemed necessary by the section board for the conducting normal section business.

An example is when there is a tour, where the host restricts participation to non-competitors. In that case only name and company name would be shared.